

Montgomery City, Missouri is centrally located in the heartland of America. Montgomery City has a friendly business environment where reaching most of the central portion of the United States is just a day's drive away.

Montgomery City is situated just 6 miles north of Interstate 70 and about an hour west of the country's 16th largest metropolitan market, St. Louis. Montgomery City is serviced with daily rail service from Norfolk & Southern Railroad. With a modern utility system and large electric load capacity from AmerenUE, Montgomery City has ample capacity to handle the growing needs of industry and business.

Standing ready, Montgomery City is ideally suited for your next project. Montgomery City, Missouri. Real Possibilities.

For information contact:

David G. Gaines, Executive Director
Montgomery City Growth, Inc.
(573) 564-2712
dgaines@montgomerycity.org
www.montgomerycity.org

Critical Infrastructure Information

1.4 Million Gallon Daily Water Capacity

350,000 Gallon Average Daily Usage

2 Waste Water Treatment Plants

City Owned Natural Gas Distribution System

Daily Rail Service

Major Interstate Highway Access

Publicly Owned Business and Industrial Parks

Skilled and Motivated Workforce

High Speed Internet

Montgomery City, Missouri.

Real Possibilities.

Please contact me to discuss a potential project.

Company

Contact

Address

Address

City

State

Zip

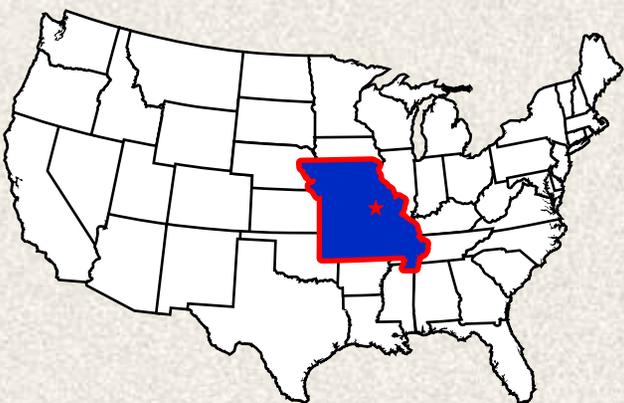

Phone

eMail

Best Contact Time / Method

Montgomery City Missouri

Real Possibilities.

Montgomery City Growth, Inc.
723 N. Sturgeon St.
Montgomery City, MO 63361

Place
Stamp
Here

Montgomery City Growth, Inc.
723 N. Sturgeon St.
Montgomery City, MO 63361

